

2022 AQMP Comment Letter Index

A total of 95 comment letters have been received for the proposed control measures presented in the 2022 AQMP Control Measures Workshop held on November 10, 2021. This index identifies the comment letters received as of March 31, 2022.

Comment Letter Number	Organization	Date of Submittal
1–81, 85	Concerned constituents (82 individuals with similar comments)	12/3/2021
82	Southern California Gas Company	12/7/2021
83	American Coatings Association	12/8/2021
84	Southern California Air Quality Alliance	12/8/2021
86	Roof Coatings Manufacturing Association	12/8/2021
87	California Environmental Voters, Sierra Club, RMI, Peoples Collective for Environmental Justice, Earthjustice, Center for Community Action, Coalition for Clean Air	12/8/2021
88	California Council for Environmental and Economic Balance	12/8/2021
89	Regulatory Flexibility Group represented by Latham and Watkins	12/8/2021
90	Earthjustice and undersigned organizations (California Communities Against Toxics, California Kids IAQ, Center for Community Action & Environmental Justice, Coalition for a Safe Environment, Community Dreams, East Yard Communities for Environmental Justice, EMeRGE, NAACP, Pacific Environment, People’s Collective for Environmental Justice, San Pedro & Peninsular Homeowner’s Association, USC professors, West Long Beach Association)	12/8/2021
91	Western States Petroleum Association	12/8/2021
92	National Fuel Cell Research Center – Dr. Jack Brouwer	12/9/2021
93	FuelCell Energy Inc. - Brady Borcharding	1/12/2022
94	Southern California Gas Company	2/17/2022
95	Regulatory Flexibility Group represented by Latham and Watkins	3/31/2022