

(Adopted April 7, 1978)(Amended February 2, 1979)

RULE 1225. CONDUCT OF CROSS-EXAMINATION

The Presiding Officer shall offer the right of cross-examination to each party in the established order of presentations (staff, applicant, petitioners, others). Cross-examination should be limited to the issues before the Board on the case. The Presiding Officer may impose reasonable restrictions on the length and duration of cross-examination and may rule out-of-order those questions that have been previously asked and answered. Interested persons have the right to cross-examine witnesses; however, the Presiding Officer may require that questions be submitted in writing, to be posed to the witness either by the Counsel for the District or by the Presiding Officer.

For purposes of this rule, "interested persons" shall mean any person who has filed an appearance pursuant to Rule 1206; except the Staff, applicant, and petitioner.
